

Precis.

css: 2022

The Greek's God.

The ancient Greek believes in the signs of nature and experiments by soothsayers for resolving their mysteries and addressing questions. Many interpreters and palmist were known for that. The God's message delivered by prophet to the people becomes more popular than 'divine mania'. Association with the gods and located within a proper place for foreseeing the future by Greek Oracles, and conveying the decisions of popular gods to the people.