Q. No. 6. Make a precis of the following passage and assign a suitable title: (25)

There must be in the world many parents who, like the present author, have young children whom they are anxious to educate as well as possible, but reluctant to expose to the evils of most existing educational institutions. The difficulties of such parents are not soluble by any effort on the part of isolated individuals. It is, of course, possible to bring up children at home by means of governesses and tutors, but this plan deprives them of the companionship which their nature craves, and without which some essential elements of education must be lacking. Moreover, it is extremely bad for a boy or girl to be made to feel 'odd' and different from other boys and girls; this feeling, when traced to parents as its cause, is almost certain to rouse resentment against them, leading to a love of all that they most dislike. The conscientious parent may be driven by these considerations to send his boys and girls to schools in which he sees grave defects, merely because no existing schools seem to him satisfactory - or, if any are satisfactory, they are not in his neighbourhood. Thus the cause of educational reform is forced upon conscientious parents, not only for the good of the community, but also for the good of their own children. If the parents are well-to-do, it is not necessary to the solution of their private problem that all schools should be good, but only that there should be some good school geographically available. But for wage-earning parents nothing suffices except reform in the elementary schools. As one parent will object to the reforms which another parent desires, nothing will serve except an energetic educational propaganda, which is not likely to prove effective until long after the reformer's children are grown up. Thus from love for our own children we are driven, step by step, into the wider sphere of politics and philosophy.

Q2 Write a letter to the Secretary, Youth and Sports Ministry, highlighting the lack of sports facilities for youngsters and suggesting some concrete measures to promote sports in the province.

Examination Hall,
A, B, C,
Quetta, Pakistan.

The 25th Oct, 2023

Respected Secretary,
Ministry of Youth and Sports,
D, E, F,
Quetta, Pakistan.

Subject: Lack of sports facilities and suggestions for promoting sports

Respected Sir/Madam,

I hope this letter finds you in good health. I am writing this letter to bring into your knowledge regarding the lack of sports facilities in the province. Being a youth, I have immense interest in extra curricular activities like sports. However, I regret to inform you that the province have inadequate sports facilities for youth.

Upon searching for sports complexes, I came across various sports arenas established and supported by the Ministry of Youth and Sports. Despite having large unused state lands, the province lack sufficient sports facilities for youth where they could spend their leisure time in healthy sports activities. Further, those complexes which exists lack certain facilities which must be made available for the beneficiaries.

In addition of above, promotion of sports in the province may be taken on priority by the concerned Ministry. The government may take steps to establish sports facilities by either utilizing state lands or go on public private partnership at district and divisional levels. The government may allocate funds for tournaments and provide trainers for practicing youth. Moreover, media tool may be used to encourage youth in healthy sports activities and participating in tournament. Furthermore, the Ministry needs to make extra efforts to encourage girls to participate in sports activities. For this purpose, there is a need to recruit female trainers and seperate hours in ground for practice.

In the view of above, you being the Competant Authority, it is requested to take concrete steps for looking into the matter.

Yours faithfully,
(Signature)
X, Y, Z.

Q6 Make a precis of the following passage and assign a suitable Title.

Ans Parents insecurities about educational institutions

Like author, parents desire to educate children and prohibit to observe the worsts of educational institutions. Individuals alone cannot resolve these problems. Educating children is possible at home but it deprives them from important educational elements. This may make children feel different from others thus leading to an undesirable reaction against parents. Resultantly, they may send their children to unsatisfactory schools while acceptable ones donot exist nearby. Hence, parents bring reforms for everyone's benefit. Good earning parents demands for good schools in nearby area while rest demands for reforms. After the reformer childrens are grown up, active educational propoganda will serve the purpose. Hence, love for children leads to greater level debate.

Q1. Essay on any one topic with its outline.
Do good, have good.

Outline:

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Performing good deeds at any level in society have positive outcomes. An individual reaps the same results from the receiver which benefits the individual at any circumstances. The act of doing good results in a peaceful and progressive society at broader spectrum.

2- How can one be good with oneself to result in personal development

a- Have optimistic approach towards life.

b- Work more hard to achieve goals.

c- Be focused on any given task.

3- The results of doing good at societal level.

a- Builds trust level among society members.

b- Develops high level of understanding.

c- Increased level of respect.

4- Conclusion

Allah in Holy Quran said, "If you do good, you do good to yourselves. Likewise, if you do bad, then you do bad to yourselves." Doing good or bad in a society has same replication on the individual who perform these deeds. It is a well known statement that one sow what one has reaped in life. In Eastern states it is generally termed as 'karma' according to which one gets what one has done in past with others. Doing good have good results at individual as well as societal level. At individual level it has positive outcomes in the life of the individual solely while at societal level it not only benefits the society members but the same reaction is received in reward from the society members especially at the hour of need. Performing good deeds at any level in society have positive outcomes. An individual reap the same result from the receiver which benefits the individual at any circumstance. The act of doing good results in a peaceful and progressive society at broader spectrum.

An individual can be good with oneself to have good in life. The attitude of an individual ~~has~~ matters a lot towards what he gains <sup>2003</sup> or loses in life. An individual who has positive approach towards life always see good aspects of the life. This optimistic approach helps him to become a good person deep inside his personality. He always take ~~the~~ challenges with a positive approach of learning from it ultimately developing his skills beneficial for his growth. <sup>2529</sup>

Working hard for any goal is considered a good deed in life. No one can achieve any set ~~to~~ goal unless one does not work hard. Working hard for oneself to reach the set goal <sup>2003</sup> is the good deed that has a good result in life. Hence, more hard work has even better results that benefit the individual in short and long run depending upon the nature of work and set targets.

Moreover, focusing on any goal or target has best results than on scattered task. Focusing on the target and giving best on it results <sup>350</sup> in positive outcomes for an individual. Focus is made on priorities and priorities once achieved has long lasting effects on the individual's life. Focusing on the targets can help individual achieve life goals at a shorter time than scattered tasks. <sup>287</sup>

Doing good at individual level has good results for ones own life but doing good at societal level has far reaching impact for the whole society which ultimately has mirror effect on the individual later in life. A person performing any good deed for people surrounding him results in increased trust upon that person. The society members trusts <sup>on</sup> a person ~~in~~ every good and bad situation where they share their problems and expect for kindness and help. If the same person gets into any trouble, then society members come forward to help him <sup>and</sup> take out from the situation.

Furthermore, if an individual do good with the members of the society then it develops <sup>a feeling of</sup> good understanding among among the members. This act good act creates an environment of brotherhood in the society where others will also try to contribute in future to bring harmony and peace by performing good act. Creating a peaceful environment ultimately helps the individual to live in peaceful society where each member <sup>will</sup> understand other members issues and try to contribute their part wherever possible.

In addition to above, if a person perform good act in a society then that person has immense respect in the society. This person is always given regard by the other members of the society. By doing a good deed, a person is always taken into consideration by making any decision on community level. Hence doing good results in high respect by the society members to the helping individual.

To conclude, it is stated that doing good always have a mirror reaction to the person's life either at personal level or societal level. Good deeds has positive outcomes in a person's life by increased level of personal growth. While at societal level, doing a good deed not only have positive results for the members of the society but also for the individual itself at broader level. One should always do good to have good in life.
