

Prosperity gains friends, Adversity tries them

In this modern era no one is happy, there is anxiety, business and depression all aware. The life becomes very mechanical that man works like a machine day and night to make his both ends meet. No time is there to relax and not any people/person to console him rather people make benefit out of him. Even at a time of hardships there is no one to help him. Man made friends for and being happy but just for happy time, because at the time of any adversity everyone leaves him. ~~the~~ When he is happy everyone will be around him and praise him flatter and make him to sense that this happiness is just because of them. When everyone leaves, a true friend stands with him. In any hard time he will never leave him. He consoles him and will try his best to help not concerning about his own happiness and any benefit. He never flees when the bear comes but remains there for his friend. Therefore Publilius Syrus said "Prosperity gains friends adversity tries them."

A true friend at every stage holds on his hand firmly. When there came any hard time he console him and gave proper instructions to face bravely that hardship. He never misguides his friend, when every one is against him he stand still with his friend. Even at his absence he not goes against him or talk bad about him but not allow anyone to say a bad word against his friend. He not in presence but also in absence think good for him. He took hard steps against the people who utter ever any bad word against his friend. Hazrat Ali (R)

Said "A friend who does not defend you in your absence is not a good friend"

A well bosom friend is a blessing in this materialistic era. A good friend not only help his friend (with just verbally and physically help but also financially. In the hard times One help his friend to overcome and not to face the people for aid

A good friend saves his fellow dishonouring for money before 1 people. He considers that disrespect as his own so he provides that need which he requires. When people leave him he remain there as a strong arm because he considers his fellow above all (his) the relations. At some time, people hate them for their strong bonding because they never remain happy for someone to having such a good friend so they make proper steps to make them separate. But at that time both understand the situation and remain strong and never leave each other alone.

Walter Winchell said:

"A friend walks in when everyone else walks out."

Bad company destroys man's behaviour, his nature and even his whole life. When a person falls in bad company, there are much possibilities that his life ruined. But a good friend saves him from such type of company and make him realize that that is not good for him. He never let his friend to take drugs.

because he know that will destroyes his whole life so he by every way tries to save his friend. In the time of hardships and disease all the friends and even ones own relate leave him but a true friend walks with him when not one there is with him. He make the dark, light for him. In the high time or in prosperity some one there who leaves their poor friends but a good friend always remain a good friend will all qualities.

Said,
Where there are friends. there is wealth.

(A good example) Hazrat Abu Bakkar (R.A) was a true and all weather friend of Hazrat Muhammed (S.A.W). In all the trials and hardships he never leave him and stay still and stood there without any benefit. At the time of G. G. Uhud Hazrat Abu Bakkar presented all of the wealth which he had to his friend Hazrat Muhammad (P.B.U.H).

When there were the Mushrakeen of Mecca after Hazrat Muhammed (P.B.U.H) he hide in Cave Hira. At this adverse time Hazrat Abu Bakr stood there with him. At time of his migration, Hazrat Abu Bakr was at the side of Hazrat Muhammed (P.B.U.H). There are thousands of examples of their friendship which is an ideal for all the mankind. He remained there when all leave him alone.

Hazrat Ali (R.A) said

"A friend cannot be considered a friend until he is tested on three occasions, in the time of need, behind your back and after your death."

Pakistan China friend-ship is also a good example for this, Their friendship is becoming ideal day by day for all the world.
