

(Precis - 2014)

" Re-construction of Morals "

A person must aware of his intelligence and know the art of utilizing it for playing a positive role in society. Oftenly social morals are associates with religions, but the greed of people reached humanity to the point that god is exists. The practical person has no affiliations with social values, but only mindful in seeking more power. The teachers have the power or tendency to create moral sensitivity within human's sub-consciousness. The masses must be exercised to be empathetic members of society.

Total words - 250
written precis - 82.