

Brain drain: An economical advantage of Irreplaceable loss.

Outline.

- 1- Introduction
- 2- Thesis statement: Brain drain is emigration of highly trained or qualified people from a particular country. Brain drain gives economical advantage to the families and causes an irreplaceable loss ^{to immigrant} country. It has benefits as well as drawback. Steps should be taken to counter its drawbacks.
- 3- Causes of brain drain
- 4- What economical advantages are of brain drain
 - a) Increase influx of remittances
 - b) Brain gain
 - c) Investment in domestic education and individual human capital.
 - d) Technology transfer, investment and venture capital by diasporas
 - e) Promotes integration into global markets
- 5- Irreplaceable loss caused by brain drain
 - a) Decrease in human capital, specially those with professional experience.
 - b) causing disparities in incomes in country of origin
 - c) Remittance from skills migration may taper off after sometime.
 - d) Revenue loss

DATE: ___/___/___

- 6- ~~How~~ How we can minimize the drawbacks
- a) Take steps to counter illegal emigration
 - b) ^{By} Providing handsome opportunities with desirable salaries to skilled and educated people in their country.
 - c) ^{By} Encouraging remittances on yearly bases
 - d) ^{By} Maintaining political stability.
- 7- Conclusion