

Topic: Unipolar, Bipolar or Multipolar: A New Direction of the World

Outline:

- I- Introduction
- II- A Brief overview of Unipolar and Bipolar World
 - II-I Historical context
- III- A Bird's view of Multipolar World
 - III-I Concentration of power among several States
- IV- Manifestations that New Direction of World is Multipolar
 - (A) Rise of China
 - (a) Case in point: Reconciliation between Iran and Saudi Arabia
 - (B) Expansion of BRICS
 - (b) Case in point: 6 more members added this year
 - (C) Shifting and Reshifting of Alliances
 - (c) Case in point: The incline of Middle East towards China
 - (D) Regional Hegemonic Rivalries
 - (d) Case in point: India vs China
 - (E) Shift in Economic Powers
 - (e) Case in point: Rise in trade blocs like SCO, ASEAN, EU
 - (F) Rise of Non-state Actors
 - (f) Case in point: Emergence of Al-Qaeda
 - (G) Focus on Multilateral Projects to connect the World
 - (g) Case in point: B3W, BRI, CPEC

(vi) Impacts of Multipolar World

- (A) Maintenance of Balance of Power
- (B) Increase in Competition for Better Resources
- (C) Reshaping of Global Trade
- (D) Complex Diplomacy

(vii) Recommendations for Better Multipolar World

- (A) Enhance Cultural Diplomacy
- (B) Respect for Sovereignty
- (C) Greater Global Cooperation

(viii) Conclusion

