V Conclusion

(I) Introduction:

There is a famous quotation by Napoleon Bonapart he said that "Give me good mothers and I will give you a good nation". Man is a fraction of society, who is incomplete without a companion and this companionship is filled by women. Just as an industry can not survive on the work of half of its employees the same goes for civilization, women are integral part of society and without their main stream society as a whole can not progress. For this purpose education is inevitable without which ~~their~~ ^{these} streamlining is impossible.

Women Universities play an important role in empowering women. Why Women Universities are required? Because not all girls have access to co-education and various other factors. Educated mothers ~~are~~ ^{play} a key role in nation building. Poverty which is a prevailing cause of low human index development in developing countries can be tackled by imparting education to women.

Date

There are some key challenges in this regard ranging from religious to social ethics. Which are needed to be addressed for equal opportunities for both genders in every field of life.

(v) Conclusion

Without women involvement journey towards civilization cannot be completed. Women should practice her education and career opportunities. When the women is empowered it means the whole family is ^{higher} empowered and the overall society is ^{also} empowered. Education play an important role towards empowerment. They should fight for themselves for having better living standard and they should make their own decisions. Since women compose half of the population there can be no development unless the needs and interests of women are fully taken into account.
