

Topic:- Pakistani Women have the same chances as men?

Outline:

1- Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Pakistani women throughout their lives thrive for the equal opportunities. Despite the changing status of the women worldwide, Pakistani women do not have the same opportunities as men. The ongoing efforts for gender equality are undeniable, but the debate for equal opportunities will continue.

2. An Overview of the Status of Women in Pakistan

3. Pakistani Women do not have the same chances as men (Thesis)

a- Number of child brides is greater than child grooms in Pakistan.

b- Lack of career opportunities.

c- Women trafficking crimes are higher than the overall human trafficking in Pakistan.

d- Gender gap in the literacy rates of Pakistan.

e- Lack of political representation of women.

4. Pakistani women have the same chances as men. (Anti-T) a- Laws against child marriage

b- Labor laws protect women workers through quotas

c- Human trafficking is a crime regardless of the gender.

d- Women have the same right to education as men.

e- Women representation in legislative bodies.

5. Pakistani women continue to face discrimination but efforts for gender equality are undeniable. (Synthesis)

a- Ineffective gender biased law enforcement.

b- Quotas are for the protection of minorities.

c- Social stigma against educated women

d- Patriarchal norms encourage unreporting crimes against women

e- Political rep of women is not according to their population

6. Conclusion: