

Only a healthy population can be an asset for a country

Outline

1- Introduction:

Thesis statement.

2- Crunch Paragraph:

3- Why healthy population can be asset for a country:

a- A quality population is essential for economic growth.

b- A healthy population can be decrease the crime rate.

c- A healthy population can be develop greater social and cultural changes.

d- A quality population can be develop free and fair justice.

4- How can a quality population be asset for a country:

a- More people work more then economic productivity increase.

b- Importance of education is improving the quality of population.

c- People obtain higher level of education then decrease unemployment rate.

d- Direct technology to induce human development in society.

5- Hurdles in the way to make population healthy:

a- Typical mindset of people to work under someone.

b- Poor educational system.

c- Lack of awareness.

d- Lack of resources.

6- Conclusion: