

Date: _____

precise 2021

Title: A palestinian tribute to his homeland.

Nizar hassan lived with his family in Mashad. He is a documentary film maker. He produced his documentary independence in which he talks about forcible occupation of palestinian's land by israel and called the act independence. As israel is now occupying a bit more palestinian land, Nizar hassan has made another documentary My Grand's father path giving the idea that one's end up like one's ^{own} ~~own~~ enemy, don't be a part of your enemy's trap, and never give up on your dreams. In this state of grief, Nizar hassan payed tribute to his home land by putting palestine in limelight through his work.

original word count 360

precise word count 102-103