

CSS Precis 2016

Solution

Title: A trip to Cherokee

The author was confused to choose a place for his vacation.

He was happy when his friend suggesting trip to Cherokee and he started preparation.

They visited the 18th century Qualla Boundary. It was reflects the tribes history. They have facing language barriers but they managed with the help of natives. They visited a souvenir shop, carrying several articles and met an English speaking shopkeeper. Previously being a wood-cutter, the shopkeeper told the writer how ~~to~~ busy he remained during the tour season which is when off, leads people to find other means of livelihood. One of them is Bingo Hall where people play and win money. The writer pledges to visit other place after enjoying

~~the~~ Museum of Qualla Boundary as his last stop during tour.

(126 words)