

Brain Drain in Pakistan

Outline

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Pakistan is losing the Asset of the nation as a consequence of brain drain. Multiple factors are responsible in this regard; followed by severe implications. Pakistan needs to understand the propelling factors of brain drain and then take pragmatic measures accordingly.

2. Explaining Brain Drain and its Current Scenerio in Pakistan

3. The Causes of Increasing Brain Drain in Pakistan:

- a. Political instability and social upheavel among masses
- b. Economic crisis and declining interest of investors
- c. Increasing inflation rate, and lack of career opporunities
- d. Dismal picture of higher education
- e. Poor budget allocation on human development
- f. Lack of technological development, fewer opporunities for brighter future
- g. Missing meritocracy

4. Lesser Brain Drain in Other Countries; What Promises they offer?

- a. Better Human development index
- b. Effective management of resources and distribution

- c. Sound investment in research and development and promising careers
 - d. Skill based educational training
5. The severe implications of brain drain in Pakistan

- a. Losing intellectual minds of the nation
- b. Reducing human capital and mounting economic crisis
- c. Regression in fields on research and development

6. Ways for Pakistan to Save The Asset of the Country

- a. Increasing budget of human development sectors
- b. Providing research grants for/to deserving individuals
- c. Installing industrial units and giving promising career opportunities

7. Conclusion

