

Social Media has destroyed real life communication

(Argument)

Thesis Statement

Social media has left the conventional human life far behind, with its positive and negative impacts. It has enhanced the communication, learning and life style. However, the negative aspects of social media can be curbed by its controlled and responsible use.

Outline

1 Introduction

2 Has social media really destroyed real life communication?

3 The blessings of social media in enhancing the real life communication (Thesis)

3.a Social media has facilitated people-to-people contact all over the world

3.b Virtual learning has revolutionized education system

3.c Social media provide ease of sharing happy moments and achievements with friends.

3.d Awareness and social activism has increased.

3.e Rise in e-commerce: online shopping and promotions through social media.

4 The pitfalls of social media (Anti-Thesis)

- 4.b Online education has decreased the potential of students
- 4.a The communication of people with immediate family has decreased.
- 4.c Social media has threatened people over their privacy breach.
- 4.d Public opinion has been moulded due to propaganda
- 4.e Lack of trust in E-commerce due to frauds

5 Social media has provided far more advantages in improving real life communication to outweigh its pitfalls

- 5.a The communication is personal preference whether on social media or real life.
- 5.b The efficiency depends on student that how to utilize online learning.
- 5.c Sharing the information responsibly is on the hands of user.
- 5.d One should not blindly follow everything publicized on social media.
- 5.e Official brands and business policies should be considered.

6. Conclusion