

Only a healthy population can be an asset for a country

Outline

1. Introduction

2. Relation between healthy population and an asset of country

3. How healthy population can be an assets?

a) Only healthy people can represent their country more vehemently at global level.

b) Healthy minds have more innovative and revolutionary ideas

c) Less economic melt down due to less spending on health care cost.

d) Educated and professional people with proper health can avert the country's economic crisis.

e) Healthy people are the prerequisite of the armed forces

f) Healthy people can spur the sport industry of a country.

g) Healthy people can socially develop the country.

4. How unhealthy people are burden on a country?

a) More spending on the health care cost

b) Augmentation of unemployment

c) They will develop a socially and morally deteriorated society.

d) Unhealthy people will be burden on the capitals of a country.

5. How healthy population can be utilise as an asset?

a) Healthy people can work parallel with the machines and robots.

b) Healthy diaspora can add to the economy through remittances

c) By providing them employment opportunities.

6. Conclusion