

Precis.

css: 2022

The Greek's Gods.

The ancient Greek believed in the signs of nature and experiments by soothsayers for resolving their mysteries and addressing questions.

? Many interpreters and palmist were known for that. The God's message delivered by prophets to the people becomes more popular than 'divine mania'. Association with the gods and located within a proper place for foreseeing the future by Greek Oracles, and conveying the decisions of popular gods to the people.

incorrect interpretation

where is this written in the main passage?

incoherent incorrect and irrelevant precise main idea is picked but the meaning is not as same as the main passage

0/20

there is no word count or any info

read the basic rules again