

MashaAllah

Pakistani Women have the Same Chances as Men

Outline

1) Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Women and men both are fundamental pillars of society, and their equal participation can ensure progress and development of society. Unfortunately, Pakistani women do not have equal chances and opportunities as men do. However, by taking concrete and practical steps, both at societal and governmental level, ~~can ensure~~ equality and equity for women can be ensured.

2) Importance of providing equal chances to women

3) Pakistani women do not have the same chances as men

- a) Lack of access to educational institutions of women
- b) Unequal employment opportunities for women
- c) Discriminatory attitude of society towards working women
- d) Lack of decision making power due to domination of men
- e) Lack of women inclusive policy of stakeholders

→ Insufficient content
→ outline lacks strong research basis

Not reflected in thesis st
4) Pakistani women have same chances as men

- a) Many educational institutes provide scholarships to women ✓
- b) Women have separate quota for jobs in government sector ✓
- c) Many women are thriving in their career and are celebrated by society ✓
- d) Government Women have religious and constitutional right of decision making as per their will
- e) Government has initiated multiple women empowerment programs

5) These initiatives are not enough to provide same chances for women as men

- a) Women are not able to benefit from scholarships, as society prefers educating men over them.
- b) Women have been ascribed the role of home maker and they are not encouraged to work ✓ rebels
- c) Working women are considered as and face workplace harassment ← 2 different points in 1 heading
- d) Socialization of women? makes them submissive and they don't question about inequalities
- e) All the government initiatives are short term and ineffective. → too broad claim

6) Conclusion ✓