Nizar Hassan : The Voice of Palestine

merge into 1 sentence no need to tell the detail of his life

Nizar Hassan was born in Mashhad in 1960. He graduated from Haifa University and worked in TV. He turned to cinematography and in 1994 produced his masterpiece - Independence - a satire on absurd claim of Israel's illegal Occupation of Palestine. It is advised to choose one's enemies wisely as one often ends up like them. Violence is never a solution. For decades, Palestinian art, poetry and literary works have presented a beautiful perspective of Palestine against Israeli atrocities. Nizar Hassan's latest film, My Grandfather's Path, is one such masterfully crafted outpiece. It is a tribute to his homeland that has been broadcasted on Al-Jazeera. It is a sacred work of art that one needs to watch.
