

Amna Ikram (PMS 2024)

"We are not known by what we say, but what we do"

1: Introduction:
Thesis Statement:

It is not the words but actions which makes a person valuable and memorable. Humanity is already suffering from the spirit of hollow promises. Hence, it is imperative to correct the reasons and work for betterment. → generic

2- Action Speaks louder than words:
An overview

3: Present and Future ^{ed?} belong to those who were consistent in actions rather words _{won?}

a: A Tale of leaders who win the nation not by promises but actions: The end of British colonialism in sub-continent exp is about losing and heading is about winning b: Philosophers gave birth to world's great government systems - Still known today relevance to topic?

write only point / argument in outline not examples c: Thomas Edison - The founder of Electric bulb known by his consistent efforts rather theories only 4: The Tale of vague actions, still causing devastation:

a: Afghanistan leadership become the symbol of oppression under the hollow promises of gender equality b: Vague efforts in implementing Climate policies exaggerate environmental deterioration c: UN Peace Keeping manifesto kneel under global wars and exploitation of Human Rights

5: Why a man does not take a action and rely on beating around the bush a: A man who lacks critical reasoning rely on boasting headings do not express the point they're irrelevant to

First Practice Body Paragraphs for correct use of tenses. leaves b: Inconsistency and procrastination left the person on mercy of fake promises understanding and better c: Adults with weak emotional intelligence fear losing hence rely on mere talks cannot be

Essay paper attempted on the basis of general knowledge you must b: How can a man escape the loop of word-game and start taking action?

a: Pragmatic role of parents in bringing up confident children - Trusting their life decisions material on topic read extensively b: Careful selection of peer group c: Accepting failures and detaching negative thoughts

Understand clearly - most of the content is not relevant -

7. Conclusion