

START FORM HERE

Argumentative.

Has United Nations succeeded in averting war in the world?

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement:- The United Nations has succeeded in averting war in the world. In fact, the United Nations has kept mission of peace such as, role of Trusteeship Council, UNGA, UNSC etc. are a clear evidence of it. Therefore, the United Nations has mostly stopped out-break of war in the world.

How UNGA or SC are evidence??

Be clear while writing

2- A bird's eyeriew of the establishment of the United Nations for peace-keeping mission

3- The United Nations has succeeded in averting war in the world (Thesis)

a) The Trusteeship Council has made disputed territories sovereign and independent by stopping great WWII

b) The UNGA has played its role in stopping Russia-Ukraine conflict

c) The permanent members of the UNSC play front role in maintaining peace of the world

d) The UN role is clear in bringing peace in Palestine

Don't limitise it to the recent events
Explain the role of UN in averting the wars since it's establishment

START FORM HERE

e) The UN has imposed global sanctions for peace-keeping mission

4- The United Nations has failed in peace-keeping mission in the world (Anti-thesis)

a) The Trusteeship has not put effort for independent and sovereign Kashmir

b) The UNGA has weak decision power as it is only advisory

c) The UNSC-members exercise veto power for personal interest

d) The UN has failed in stopping war in Palestine to bring peace

e) Even after sanctions, wars have threatened peace of the world

5- The United Nations has mostly succeeded in averting war in the world (Synthesis)

a) The United Nations has successfully called Kashmir as a disputed territory between Ind-Pak

b) Despite its advisory decision, the UNGA passed resolution with majority for ending Russia-Ukraine war

c) Despite veto power, the UNSC has ended war between two rivals.

d) The UN has supported peace in Palestine rather than Israel's brutal face

e) The UN has mostly stopped countries in going wars

6- Conclusion