

Mashal

Instruction in youth is like engraving in stone

Outline

1. Introduction:-

Phase?

Tesis Statement:

Youth is the best time for a human being to receive instruction and training. The imprints of ~~this~~ first instruction processes are permanently embedded in one's personality. One may regard the instruction in time of youth as personality-defining and destiny-shaping.

2. Permanence of instruction ^{received in} of youth

3. Youth-ideal time to polish a human being:-

- Fresh and invigorated mind
- Full of energies
- Mind less polluted with biases, prejudices
- Habits less established
- More open to new ideas

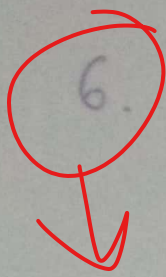

4. Importance and longevity of instruction in youth:-

- Form Serve as foundational concepts
- Define one's personality
- Resemble a seed sown in fertile soil

This is only a metaphor write argument

5. Lessons for educators: What to instruct in youth:-

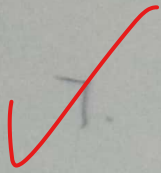

- Instill good moral concepts in youth:-
- Provide them with strong foundational knowledge of nature
- Develop self-awareness in them
- Nurture their creative and innovative mind

6. Examples from Nature:-

- a. Animals - stamp their child with certain traits early in youth
- b. Plants - orientation of a plant never changes
- c. Rivers - seldom change patterns

Write only arguments in outline sans examples

7. Conclusion

- Neat presentation
- understanding is good
- ideas are relevant but insufficient

Make outline more weighty by adding more concrete arguments