

Q4 Do you think Karl Marx's Capitalist perspective is applicable to today's world? Elaborate your answer by giving arguments.

1. Introduction:

Karl Marx in his Capitalistic perspective explain that society is divided into two classes. Bourgeoisie are those that labor and resources and other class is Proletariat that do not own anything. According to capitalist perspective bourgeoisie exploit the proletariat for economic benefits.

2. Marx's Capitalist perspective:

According to M Marx, there are two classes one that owns everything also known as Haves. They own the means of production. On the other hand there are Have's not they own nothing they work for Haves and Haves exploit them for their benefits.

3. Application of Karl Marx Capitalist perspective.

In today's world one can easily observe that Karl Marx Capitalist perspective applications especially in Pakistani Society.

a. Private and Public Institutions:

Private and public institution are very good examples of capitalist perspective as all the private institutions are owned by elite and only elite's child get the benefits like bourgeoisie and on the other hand public institutions lack basic facilities and the child of poor get education in public institutions. Thus, this creates Have's and Have not in the society.

b. English medium and Urdu medium

Institutions:

In Pakistan one can see two ~~kind~~ of education system. One in which the medium is English and other is Urdu. Those who get education in English are considered as Haves whereas those who get their education in Urdu are considered as Have's not as people who have grip on English. They get edge on those who have not. Thus, it is a form of Capitalist perspective of marks.

C. Life style in Pakistan:

There exists two types of people in Pakistan. One is elite class and other is poor. The elite class owns all the ownership whereas poor have nothing. These poor class is controlled and exploited.

by elite class as the poor work for them they exploit them in every possible way

4. Conclusion:

In conclusion one can easily say that Capitalist perspective of Marx's is ~~applicable~~ in today's world. Elite class (Have's) are exploiting the poor class (Have's not) for their ease and economic benefits. Poor's who have nothing to eat is easily exploited by very less wages as compared to work taken by ~~him~~ them.

ans lacks material content and ans is too short need more data examples and arguments dont limit the ans to the extent of pakistan give global examples and relate more theories too
