

Topic: People have become overly dependent on Technology

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement:

Technology is the need of time. Therefore people overly dependent on it. But overly dependent on technology have both positive and negative impacts on people.
However its negative impacts can be reduce with counter measures.

First you need to improve your sentence structure

Second, work on punctuation, we always use comma after punctuation

Their overly dependent already associated with negative connotation so you have to write the cons
