

Instruction in Youth is like engraving in stones

- Introduction
- Thesis statement: Just as carving on stone leaves an enduring mark, ~~the~~ early education ~~also~~ shapes the individual's future.
- Importance of early education
- Etching the future: The similarities between instruction in youth and engraving in stone

Could have made more attractive points
Inculcate moral values
Help building better career etc

- (a) Enduring legacy
- (b) Building Resilience
- (c) Education for durability
- (d) Cultivating Robustness

- Challenges in youth education

Have not addressed the asked part well

- (a) Access to education
- (b) Quality of education
- (c) Technological advancement and educational Divide

- Effective ways to provide instructions in youth

- (a) The importance of formal education
- (b) The role of censorship programs
- (c) The importance of family and community
- (d) The power of online resources

Conclusion