

"Narration Practice"

CS - 2015

Q#5 Rewrite the passage, converting what is ~~in~~ indirect speech into indirect, and what is in indirect into direct.

- (i) Just as we came in sight of valley Jamil met us, --- "yes, the valley is all very fine, but do you know there is nothing to eat?"
- "Nonsense", we can eat anything here."
- "Well, the brown bread's two months old, and there's nothing else but potatoes."
- "There must be milk anyhow!"
- "Yes, there was milk, he supposed."

Ans Just as we came in sight ^{at} of valley Jamil met us and ~~said~~ ^{said} that the valley ~~was~~ ^{was} very fine, but if we knew ~~that~~ ^{that} there was nothing to eat. We rejected it as nonsense and said that we could eat anything ~~there~~ ^{there}. Jamil warned us that the brown's bread was two months old, and there was nothing else but ~~potatoes~~ ^{potatoes}. We inquired that there must be milk anyhow. Jamil replied ~~that~~ ^{that} positively and said that it was available.

Paragraph Writing

Paragraph Writing Practice.

(Body Paragraph)

Subheading: "The role of resilience in overcoming Adversity"

1. Topic Sentence:

Resilience and steadfastness are the key factors in overcoming the adversities and atrocities.

2. Explanatory or reasoning sentence:

Resilient attitude and behavior empowers a person to face the adversities unwaveringly, and also gives the ability to conquer whatever problem life ^{us} ~~throws~~ at them.

3. Supporting Point:

Historical data shows us that resilient nations as well as resilient personalities overcome their crisis and problems, ~~and~~ become even stronger, and ready to strive for future battles that await them.

4. Example:

Among resilient nations Pakistan and India have come a long way and are still striving to become developed nations. Imran Khan (Ex-Prime Minister of Pakistan) showed resilience and finally got his hands on the reigning power of Pakistan.

5. Concluding sentence:

Therefore, resilience plays a vital role in overcoming atrocities and opening new opportunities.

No of words : 120. words.