

→ Developing countries must be able to capture the benefits of international trade outlines

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Benefits of international trade for any developing country is crucial for its well-being. Ability to international trade leads to economic growth that, causes development. However, increase in the ability of international trade needs some important steps that can boost its economic growth.

2- Overview of benefits international trade for developing countries.

3- What benefits that get a developing country can get from international trade.

a) A source of foreign currency to help overcome the savings gap.

b) Falling prices for consumer in different goods and services.

c) Increased employment opportunities.

d) Moderation in technological development.

e) Improvement in education and health sectors.

f) Boosting income and standard of living.

4- why developing nations must be able to capture the benefits of international trade

a) To maximize capability of trade.

→ Developing countries must be able to capture the benefits of international trade
→ Write topic use only and back links

Thesis Statement: Benefits of international trade for any developing country is crucial for its well-being. Ability to international trade leads to economic growth that, causes development. However, increase in the ability of international trade needs some important steps that can boost its economic growth.

2- Overview of benefits international trade for developing countries.

3- What benefits that get a developing country can get from international trade.

a) A source of foreign currency to help overcome the savings gap.

b) Falling prices for consumer in different goods and services.

c) Increased employment opportunities.

d) Moderation in technological development.

e) Improvement in education and health sectors.

f) Boosting income and standard of living.

4- why developing nations must be able to capture the benefits of international trade

a) To maximize capability of trade.

7 classify

b) Comparative advantages between two nations → improve the foreign relations

c) For Boosting GDP Ratio

d) Improvement ~~for~~ in Agricultural and industrial Sectors

e) To enhance the per capita income.

f) Create balance in foreign exchange. SP be improved → to gain benefits.

g) SP Implication of modern technology in all sectors related to trade

h) All policies about trade must be elastic.

i) Proper balance ~~and~~ between exports and imports

j) Exports ~~goods~~ should be qualitative.

Conclusion

Attempt to gain the good → understand on work

Collecting is good language