

Alasha

"Children must be taught how to think not what to think."

upload neat draft for evaluation

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: In 21st century innovation and creativity are the key to success. To achieve this, children today must be taught how to think not what to think. Teaching children how to ~~think~~ is an onerous task however, certain strategies can be adopted in order to train children how to think.

2. Understanding the concept of "teaching children how to ~~think~~ not what to ~~think~~"

3. Importance of Teaching children how to ~~think~~

- a) Ensures the freedom of thought ✓
- b) Promotes imagination, creativity and innovation ✓
- c) Strengthens self-belief and self-confidence ✓
- d) Makes children aware of their social and psychological well-being. ✓
- e) Enables children to logically agree or disagree with any doctrine. ✓
- f) Helps children to over-throw stereotypes related to gender roles and career choices ✓

write self-explanatory and precise headings

4. Hurdles in the way of teaching children how to think

- a) Outdated curriculum
- b) ~~lack of Practice~~ ← classify
- c) Political ~~Ever-interference of politics in education~~
- d) Personal biases and preferences
- e) Blind conformity with group beliefs and ideas
- f) Fear of failure in case of presenting contradictory views in comparison to majority.

5. Ways to train children how to think

- a) Updating ~~and~~ the curriculum
- b) Family and teachers should encourage children to ask questions.
- c) Carrying out healthy group discussions
- d) Parents and teachers should refrain from imposing their ideas and choices on children
- e) Asking open-ended questions and providing diverse perspectives on topic under discussion.
- f) Educating children to wisely use information technology.

✓ Conclusion.