

~~Master~~ Social Media has destroyed real life communication

1 Introduction
Thesis Statement: Social media has revolutionized today's world, with its pivotal role in social, political, economic and educational sphere. However, ~~social media~~ ^{it} has destroyed real life communication due to many reasons. By taking preventive measures this destruction can be curbed.

use a suitable word for communication

2 Role of social media in real life communication clarify as this is the main topic

3 Why ^{How} social media has destroyed real life communication

- a Social media reduces face-to-face ^{in-person} communication
- b Social media encourages superficial interactions clarify
- c Social media ^{leads to} misunderstanding and conflict.
- d Misinformation and hate speech is spread by social media
- e Social media manipulates and exploits people.
- f Social media has decreased empathy and compassion
- g Social media has increased isolation.

Outline should follow the sequence of arguments given in thesis
4 Some positive impacts of social media in enhancing real life communication

- a. Social media is used to plan social events
- b. Social media maintain long distance relationships
- c. Social media keeps people connected in Pandemics.
- d. Social media has promoted globalization.

- How to prevent destruction of real life communication due to social media

- a. By spreading awareness about the importance of real life communication
- b. By promoting social gatherings
- c. By being critical about the information shared on social media

Conclusion

→ Most of the outline is generic
 → Read quality quality material for arguments.