16	5
	Pakistoni women have the same chances as men-
, 	Oulline
	Introduction
	Thesis statement: Pakistani momen do not have the same chances as men.
	Unfortunately, momen in Pakistan lack the same educational economic and that are grailable to men.
	and united here total momen are deprived of the equal a i	chances es men
	SI MEED BENAZING DE LA COLOR D 2-	A bird's eyeview on the status of wemen in Pakislan
	In I have the 3-	Pakistanie women do not have the same chances as men (Thesis) Pakistani nomen get unequal education 9)	Pakistani nomen ger megati Momen in Pakistan are deprived of b	Momen in Takician wie equal economic participation

6
9 Pakistani wemen do not have the sat me political chances as men de Pakarari women are confined to houses as domestic machines
e) Nomen are less in numbers in legal Bustem per formance
I sohocked in thesis st.
Mat My Mcocoo
Pakistan women have the same chances as men (Anti-thesis) or (a) The constitution of Pakistan has given an equal right of education to both; Pakistani women and men D) According to the Article 32 of the constitution at 1973, Pakistani women have the same economic right c) Pakistani women have specific quota in political participation
d) The government of Pakistan has ensured sole mobility of women by introducting Momen's exclusive buses
e) Justice Acresha Malile and Murat Hilalis effort in legal system is an evidence of the same legal chances Sylances

	7
5-	Pakistani wamen still do not have the same chances! as men (Synthesis)
9)	Literacy rate indicates the unfair education
€	an between Pakistani men and women
b)	Labour parlicipation is an evidence of uneque economic participation between men and women -> clarity low
c)	Since 1947, Pakistani women's participation in politice shows unequal political right di	Several harassment and vape cases engin restrict social mebility between Pakistani women and men
Mes	Exert a little extent, Palaistani women are correct	lesser in legar performance as compared ammatical pression	to men pression
1	Conclusion
0-

10
1980.	in Pakistan, are revolving in a cycle of
*	inequality since their birth. "Palaislani Since their Voidh, raussam women faces the most of unegent behavior, following Afghanistan women.
	(The United National Report, 2003). Thus, the status of Palustan women is inferior to the status of men.
ganization	of ideas is
f-contrad	ctory
	h. 11 Pakislani numen do not 3.44	have the same chances as men. among which chief inequality is unequal éducational right. Women dways receive
*
1 }; a	Untodundt ely, women are not allowed to get higher education as men- According to the UNICEF Report, " Sa Pakisland about 22.8 millions of children are all calaborates of emperen are out of schools among which 88 pc are only girls." (The UNICEF Report, 2013). Hence, Pakistani women get unequal education as compared to compared to men

16
	safe mehilita	,
		V Marana TI A. I
15 (15 (15 (15 (15 (15 (15 (15 (15 (15 (Malike and Musyat Hilalies effort in log-	y al system is an evidence of the Same legal chances: Pakistani women also have the equality in legal performance. In Pakis any women can	• lead la lead and women can guments	lead to legal system as men. "Justin e good bu	Ayesha Malik Become the first and ganization	Mustat Wildli Became the seemd olf-contrad	Chief justices et Pakistano i Therefore,
V	Rakoslani women like justice Acjesha Malik and Mustat Hilali can avail of legal chance.
	Untertangtely, Pakestani women still do not have the same chances as men such as, literaux rate indicates the unfair education between Pakistani men and wmen. W men are deprived of fair educat
	Tov Ecured	1

