

Precis - 2017

laziness a blessing in disguise Title: Cause of World Evils: Time Mismanagement

The writer says that all the worst things in the universe are because of busy people who are also confused. ~~In~~ the devil's world, where he remains busy, is the kingdom of nothingness.

The universe in the present confused state is not because of laziness alone. It lacks compassion and balance of thoughts as well. The directionless energy is still present in the world. ^{It} The big guns, during July 1914, choose leisurely activities opposite to real incident, the situation would be better today. However, the philosophy of afect life is against the idle time. People might select real calm instead of achieving so-called peace treaties by rushing towards the wrong sides. In the contemporary world, if democratic forces regard laziness as normal act, people will get used to it soon.

Every time when holy conferences are held, instead of focusing on real issues, the representatives waste their time on trivial matters. Such people have nothing to do but get jobs done for being lazy.

Words in Original paragraph = 493 Words in Precise = 165

there is too much explanation in the precise be precise and to the point no need to explain the point over all there is alot of room for the improvement

6/20