

Women empowerment and national development

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Women play a crucial role in national development. Multiple factors hinder the empowerment of women. However, overcoming women issues can help in national development.

2- Correlation of women empowerment and national development

3- Fundamentals of national development

a) Strong socio-economic and political fabric of society

b) Prevalence of democratic norms and values

c) Inclusive national institutions

d) Substantial and healthy civil society

4) Role of empowered women in national development

a) Conveying the ingredients of good governance

b) Publicising democratic norms and values

c) Boosting economic growth

d) Building a civilised nation

e) Help in establishing a tolerant and peaceful society

f) Focusing on gender equality

5- Hurdles in the way of women empowerment

- a) Established societal norms and values
 - b) Perpetuated illiteracy among women
 - c) Absence of know-how of their due rights and privileges
 - d) Weak economic support and assistance
- 6) How to empower women thereby help in national development

- a) Constitutionally strengthen women by formulating women sympathetic rules

Raise consciousness of women about their rights

Inculcate women in socio-political and economic activities

7- Conclusion