

Sub heading: Increased carbon emissions by Industrial nations.

Topic Industrial nations have unfetterly contributed
Sentence to increased carbon emissions.

Explanation: The excessive carbon concentration is the result of historical Industrial revolution whose primary source being the combustion of fossils, deforestation, rapid urbanization and other polluting human activities.

Main argument Humanity's unrelentless onslaught on nature have compelled nature to struck back with monsoons, rising temperatures, floods, droughts etc.

Supporting Point: Human-induced climate change is heating our planet, disrupting weather patterns & ocean currents and ecosystem of our living species (UN Secretary General, 2023).

Concluding Sentence: This proves the looming threat of carbon emissions ~~are~~ posed by industrial nations.