

TOPIC:
"Dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other"

OUTLINE

1) Introduction

Thesis statement:

Dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other in terms of their distinct features possessed by their government. Family-oriented power potential, nepotism and erosion of meritocracy are some attributes posed by dynastic rule to democracy. Whereas, through democratic response like: ensuring accountability and transparency, promoting anti-dynastic legislation and strengthening civil society and media the challenge can be reversed.

2) How dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other.

3) Features of Democracy

- A) Rule of law
- B) Protecting rights
- C) Ensuring law and order

4) Attributes of Dynastic Rule

- A) Family based political power
- B) Promoting family members
- C) Nepotism and Favouritism

5) Challenges posed by dynastic rule to democracy

- A) Erosion of meritocracy
- B) Potential for corruption
- C) Concentration of power within a few families

- D) Threat to democratic principles
- E) Violation of fundamental rights
- F) Social injustice and inequality
- G) Imbalances law and order situation
- H) Lack of Accountability and Transparency

- 6) Democracy response to dynastic rule
 - A) Implementing Anti-dynastic legislation
 - B) Promoting political party transparency and accountability
 - C) Strengthening civil society and media

F) conclusion

