

Topic: The Controversial Issues of Women in contemporary women's rights movement.

1. Its Introduction

Thesis Statement

Various controversial issues are arising in contemporary women's rights movements. These controversies are affecting the struggles of feminist to achieve their rights. By setting defined objectives of these movements, these controversies can be avoided.

2. Evolution of feminism and contemporary women's rights movements

3. What are the controversial issues of women in contemporary women's rights movement,

- a. Criticism on mainstream feminist for neglecting marginalized communities i.e. women of color
- b. Integration of intersectionality into feminist movements
- c. Feminist movements want grassroots activism rather working within the system

- d. Religious criticism of using inclusive language
- e. Inclusion of other gender i.e. LGBTQ into the agenda
- f. Opposing debate between liberal and radical feminist has obscured the objectives of these movements
- g. Certain slogans like "~~Mera~~ 'my body, my choice' are considered provocative
- h. Role of men in feminist activism

4. Impacts of controversies in contemporary women's rights movements

- a. Women face misogynistic abuse on social media
- b. Women's real issues are obscured i.e. domestic violence, rape
- c. Petition was filed in Lahore High court to put restrictions on these movements
- d. Women participating in the protests were attacked

e. Voices of lower class women are further suppressed by these provocations.

5. How the controversies in contemporary women's rights movements can be avoided

a. Should focus on fundamental issues of women i.e. domestic violence, Harassment

b. Should promote diversity and inclusivity

c. Objectives of feminist movement should be redefined i.e. equal integration with men in society rather than new system

6. Conclusion