

Preci Writing

Title:

Merits and Demerits of Changing Things.

As time passes things are changed in the the world. Those cities emerge as a wonder places for trade and tourism which were ruined hundreds years ago. As changing is a continuous process. Man's invention purpose to bring easiness for himself. Life in past was very difficult but modernism makes it more convenient. However, some harsh changes by some evils like Genghis Khan and Hulagu Khan of Mongol. They destroyed cities and their civilization completely which portray their brutality. Baghdad and Dehli are two prominent examples of such tyranny. However, due to changing process the life has been started ^{again} there by divine blessings.