

There are several believes and some theories in the name of freedom of education. Writers while criticizing the school of thoughts resemble to Rousseau backs the importance of knowledge. Writer argues that people are living in community and it would be idealistic to expect all aspects from spontaneous impulse. Science and technology is must to support large population in limited areas. The individualistic approach of educators limits intelligence. Mental and moral equipment is the important providence of education along ~~with~~^{with} growth and children need help in acquiring it.

Title:- The Prospect of Freedom in Education