

- no references/citations 4
- no word limit.

Date: _____

By: 31154-Momina Naveed -056.

STRUCTURED PARAGRAPH:-

SUB-HEADING:- Negative effect of social media on youth.

Topic	Among various negative effects of social media
Sentence	on youth, one is envy or jealousy.
Reason or Explanation	Social media often encourages people to compare themselves with others, leading to feelings of envy and dissatisfaction.
Supporting Point 1	Youth on social media are constantly looking at posts posts of people going to existing ^{exciting} events, having fun with friends, and celebrating accomplishments that develop a sense of envy among them.
Evidence	According to a study published by KSAT, 60% of people viewed a friend as having a better life because of what they posted on social media.
Supporting Point 2	Moreover, a feeling of envy can also be developed in youth by number of 'likes and comments' they are getting on posts as compared to their friend.
Evidence	From the same study, nearly half of users were viewed as jealous when they saw a friend had more likes than they did.
Concluding Sentence	So, the consistent use of social media can develop a feeling of envy among youth.

Words count: 152

- With in-text citations 4
- Word limit (100-120 words)

Date: _____

By: 31154-Momina Hameed-056

STRUCTURED PARAGRAPH:-

SUB-HEADING: Nuclear challenges to world peace during 21st century.

Topic Sentence	A new war weapon introduced in WWII, i.e., a nuclear bomb, is now a potential threat/challenge to the world peace during 21 st century.
Reason or Explanation	The world had seen the disastrous effects of nuclear weapon, and is, therefore working on its non-proliferation, by signing a nuclear non-proliferation treaty (NPT).
Supporting point	Not all of the nuclear powers are members of NPT, and the expansion of their nuclear assets posed a great threat to world peace.
Example or Evidence	The proliferation of nuclear weapons in North Korea, Iran, Pakistan and India ^{possess} posed a greater threat to their neighbouring countries and eventually towards world peace (Mansook Lee, Challenges to nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, 2022).
Concluding Sentence	So, the dismembership of some countries leads to the expansion of nuclear weapons and to the unrest in world peace in 21 st century.
	Words count: 119