

Pakistan and Afghan Jihad

When USSR entered in Afghanistan, it created many challenges for Pakistan. Pakistani government thought USSR can enter in our areas in future so it should be ready. USSR wanted to reach in warm water areas so that it can expand its transport and trade system around globe. As it was cold war era, USA was not wanting that USSR reach in warm water that's why it made alliance with Saudi-Arab, and Pakistani and started war against USSR. Saudi-Arabia government announced that our brothers Afghani are fighting against USSR it is duty of all muslims to start Jihad against USSR so that we can save our muslim brothers from defeat and slavery. Furthermore, those speeches by KSA government encouraged muslims to start Jihad and they started travelling towards Pakistan. Pakistan role during Afghan jihad was important as it was training Mujahids in Pakistan and USA was providing aids for their training and basic needs. According to ~~so~~ journalists almost 35 lacs muslim around the world came in Pakistan and were trained by Pakistani militant to participate in Afghan jihad. Resultantly, it became possible for USA and alliance to defeat USSR and stop seizures. Pakistan played a vital role during war but it is suffering its result till today.
