

Rising Extremism as a challenge to economic development.

Outline

1- Introduction

Yet to be taught.

2- Crunch Paragraph (Yet to be taught)

3- How rising extremism is a challenge to economic development.

- a) Religious violence causes infrastructural damages in the country.
- b) State machinery focuses on extremism problems compromising economy.
- c) Countries / Foreigners "hesitate to invest undermining economy.
- d) Extremism attracts international sanctions that halts the economy.
- e) Extremism disrupts everyday economy activities.
- f) Tourism of the country ceases that affects the wheel of economy.

4- Impacts of Religious Extremism on Country.

- a) Religious extremism reflects negative image of country in international arena.
- b) Due to lack of foreign investments the country suffers crisis.
- c) Religious extremism pose threat to women development
- d) Country's name is framed as "Terrorism supporting nation"
- e) Youth falls in radical hands promoting terrorism.

5- Ways to curtail rising extremism.

- a) Religious institutes and worship places should be kept under strong surveillance
- b) Global powers shall play their role to halt religious extremism.
- c) Madrassas and Ulemas shall spread true religion.
- d) Promote healthy activities for youth to avoid falling in radical hands

6- Conclusion.