

Precise* 2022

Dated: 5 Sep - 2023

Ancient Greece; the human Nature

The writer says that human beings feel fears when they compared difficulties of life with Nature. They need to communicate with divine power who regulate entire universe. In Ancient Greece, Oracles are work as a Soothsayers who had the gift of understanding the signs by the God. They observe and interpret the directions, dreams and examine about the nature. However, in many cases gods did not show themselves but spoke directly. ~~Each~~ Furthermore, each oracle was located within proper Church for foreseeing the future. Therefore, many oracles in Ancient Greece was responsible for conveying to mortals the decisions made by the Gods.