

Despite its urgency, Climate Crisis remains the most neglected cause.

Outlines :-

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Despite its urgency, Climate Crisis remains the most neglected cause. Rising temperatures are fueling environmental degradation, natural disasters, weather extremes and economic disruption. However, it can be reduced by planning, by taking the effective measures and by collective actions of the countries.

2. Background of Climate Crisis.

3. Factors indicating urgency of Climate Crisis

a) Why there is urgency of climate change across the world.

b) Unexpected natural disasters.

c) Changing weather patterns, frequent increasing in the earth's temperature.

d) World is suffering from water crisis.

e) Increasing threat of famine.

4. Why Climate Crisis are neglected throughout the world.

a) Lack of Awareness among majority of the population.

b) Rapid Industrialization.

c) Politics of Climate change.

d) Carbon Trading among the countries because of economic instability.

e) Nuclear competition in the world.

f) Role of Pakistan in controlling climate change.

5. Impacts of Climate Change.

a) Threats to the Biosphere.

b) Climate change has dangerous impacts on weather patterns.

c) Climate crisis leads to increase in frequency unexpected environmental disasters.

6. Ways forward.

a) Climate Crisis can be controlled by reducing the burning of fossil fuels to minimum level.

b) Effective policies for plantation & implementations of the policies.

c) Carbon trading should be banned and there should be cooperation among countries.

7. Conclusion.