

Is world peace responsibility of only global powers?

Date 14 09 23

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: World peace is equal responsibility of all nation states. However, global powers have a greater role in establishing it. They are mostly sole creators of world peace.

2. Measuring parameters of global powers for promoting world peace

3. World peace is sole responsibility of global powers (Thesis)

a) Dictating powers of implementing policies

b) Economic hegemony of global powers over global economy

c) Manufactures of world advanced technology and weapons

d) Influence of on world through national decision-making

e) Contribution in mediating warring nations

f) Possessing most of nuclear weapons and technology

Date

4. Others have also role in establishing world peace
- a) Nation states maintain peace without pledging dictating policies
 - b) Rising economic independency and stability of nation-states
 - c) Posing lethal weapons thereby getting balance of powers
 - d) Increasing role of international organisations in world politics
 - e) Increasing peacekeeping missions of multiple organisations
 - f) Striving for nuclear technology to avoid existential threats

5. However, global powers have a greater role in maintaining world peace
- a) Threatening to impose sanctions who resists
 - b) Creating healthy environment of competition rather containment
 - c) Exporting weapons to maximise security to maintain peace
 - d) Avoiding direct interference in internal affairs of sovereign states
 - e) Diplomacy is key in fighting againstarring states
 - f) Avert providing nuclear technology thereby reducing armament race

6. Conclusion