Q7. Translation ...

An obligation of a student is to avail knowledge from the teacher and the books which can enlighten the darker paths for them. Concentration and Consistency is needed for the payment of this duty. Every foreign effect which negate this should be separated from educational work.

Otherwise, menace will be that the education of the student will remain incomplete and the important time which he needs to spend in learning will waste in merely <sup>urgent needs of</sup> political activities. ~~and~~ Our country needs those scholars and intellectuals persons who know oriental, western, religious and secular knowledge at a <sup>more</sup> time than political workers. Obviously, it is obvious that such universal people can be produced if political factors do not interfere in educational activities.
It is said that our educational standards are inferior to the western ones. To some extent it is due to our economic conditions. It is true that <sup>mostly</sup> our teachers are failed in producing love for education in student's heart but a great part of this responsibility should be imposed on student themselves.

Topic: Begging: A social evil

A large no. of people beg in india as their profession especially at tourist spots. Neither counting them nor causes and conditions of their existence is important. Their effect on society & modes of living are our concern. Among many reasons behind the huge no. of begger, religious ideology is of great importance. As according to religious books, charity give people relief in other world. For many this profession is heridatry and donation help them thrive. Many people change their get-ups, wander & beg door to door. The superstitious people feared from their curse, give money and make them rich. Social Conciousness has encouraged the modern educated people to find solution of this problem. It's depressing to find that west and other countries have solved this problem through strict laws and we didn't. Social Conciousness, related to consequences of misplaced charity, among people is a great need of time. Wrong faiths are paralyzing the society. Social Scientist, strict check on count of beggars and strict laws by the state <sup>in diff cities</sup> can eradicate this evil of beggary.
