

Higher education: an agent of change

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Higher education brings positive changes in a nation. Thus, educated nations are prosperous, but Pakistani graduates have myriad issues, which means that higher education system of Pakistan has several flaws. However, these errors can be rectified if government and universities take this problem seriously.

2. How higher education is an agent of change

3. Role of higher education in bringing positive changes in a nation

- a) Production of social activists
- b) Foster democratic system
- c) Bring economic prosperity
- d) Enhancement in entrepreneurship
- e) Facilitate social mobility
- f) Increase culture diversity and inclusion
- g) Advancement in healthcare
- h) Insurance of basic facilities during crisis
- i) Increase in life expectancy
- j) Produce socialworkers

4. Problems afflicting higher education system of Pakistan

- a) Appointment of teachers on the basis of nepotism
- b) Reliance on old knowledge
- c) Nepotism in granting marks
- d) Produce incompetent graduates

5. Way forward to better higher education system of Pakistan

- a) Recruitment of teachers through commissions
- b) Provision of scholarships to needy students
- c) Preaching about higher education by clerics

6. Conclusion