

IT as blessing

Information technology had become part of our life. IT has created many opportunities, facilities and mechanisms for human being. In the world, it is ~~is~~ difficult to survive without modern technology. It can do hard tasks in few seconds and solve problems in one mint. People around the globe are using IT for many purposes such as communication, education, medical, engineering, transportation, space, evening and sports etc. ~~It~~ In addition, It is used to complete projects easily and efficiently in every field of the world. Due to, Information Technology it has become possible to share financial assets in few days from one country to other country by quick transport. Furthermore, by using technology we can connect people in seconds and send ~~there~~ <sup>or</sup> receive messages. Information technology ~~has~~ <sup>has</sup> been blessing for humanity as it helps human being to estimate future problems and take serious pre-cautions before ~~at~~ they appear. Information technology had provided many opportunities to youth for increasing their revenue ~~to~~ by giving online services. People are using IT for the betterment of the world and people as well environment. Therefore, it is responsibility of human to take full advantage of it so that life can be easy for them.