

Religious extremism as a challenged to economic development.

OUTLINE:

1- Introduction

Thesis statement

2- Crunch paragraph.

3- Understanding the Concept of religious extremism and economic development.

4- How Religious extremism is a threat to society

a) Religious extremism brings violence on minorities

b) Extremism causes gender discrimination and injustice.

c) Extremism hinders the social structure of the state eg decreasing moral values etc.

d) Extremism effects economic prosperity of state and causes economic instability.

e) Extremism is a threat to political parties supporting specific sects and groups.

f) Disturbs the image of the state at International level

5- Religious Extremism as a hurdle in economic development.

a) extremism causes strikes and protests which effect daily economic progress.

b) Suppression and violence against minorities leads to bad image at national and international level.

c) Disturbs the tourism industry which accounts as a key factor in economic development.

d) Causes poverty specially effecting lower middle class people, labours and daily wagers.

e) Extremism also disturbs remittances forces minorities ^{and others} to leave ^{the state}

e) Way forward to Control Religious extremism and to attain desirable economic development goals.

a) Establishment of environment with equal opportunities for all rather gender or religious discrimination.

b) Creating a favourable environment to avoid religious intolerance and protection of minorities

c) Peaceful environment in the state attracts tourists which causes great increase in economic development.

d) stable conditions and ^{clear} talks between politicians decreases religious extremism and brings economic prosperity

7- Conclusion.