

Precis 2016

Exciting Trip to Cherokee. Date:

Author at first had puzzled about, where he should go during his vacation, where he could experience crowdless and exciting journey. on his friend's idea they went to Cherokee, Qualla boundary, a place like paradise was in front of them. with its reproducing work of 18th century of Indian village and outdoor hills present the image of Cherokee to the visitors. In spite of communication issue due to language they visited shops which was wonderfully decorated, with assistance of locals. A shop owner, George, welcomed them in English, they got amazed that they had conversed till lunch when he invited them for lunch at near Calbee shop, he told them that sometimes he had to work whole day in tour season, but he was contented with current work. during chatting with George they realized citizen of Cherokee only not depend on trade, while all season they tried many other ways of generating income, Bingo weakened one of them, entertainment that attract the local through that even grab income last destination was museum where numerous objects of Cherokee's ancient was displayed. After back home he looked forward another exciting journey.