

Sports and Pakistani Public

In October month, world cup will be played in India. Pakistani cricket team will participate in world cup. Pakistani chief selector had recently announced name of players which will be representing our country in world cup. Furthermore, he said that he had announced team and team is well balanced. But, after the announcement of team, Pakistani public has started criticism on chief selector and captain. People are targeting players and claiming that Pakistani team will not be able to reach ~~it~~ in the semi-final. According to sports analysts, it is also discussed that whenever team is announced for any tournament our public start blaming on chief selector that he had not picked good team but when they give good performance in tournament automatically public start praising for chief selector and squad. It is not ~~strange~~ ^{surprising} in Pakistan it is common talk in our country. Pakistani people are emotionally attached with sports. Whenever, world cup comes near people start praying for team and country. Sports is only activity in our country which collect all Pakistani under one umbrella. May Allah help our team to win this year world cup. It will be first time after 1992 that Pakistani team will be holding world cup trophy. It is duty of all Pakistani to encourage our cricket team so it can give shining performance.
