

▪ Practice Exercise

The young leading the young is like the blind leading the blind; they will both fall into the ditch. The only sure guide is he who has often gone the road which you want to go. Let me be that guide; who has gone all roads, and who can consequently point out to the best. If you ask me why I went any of the bad roads myself; I will answer you truly; that it was for want of a good guide; ill example invited me one way, and a good guide was wanting to show me better. But if anybody, capable of advising me, had taken some pains with me which I have taken, and will continue to take, with you, I should have avoided many follies and inconveniences, which undirected youth ran me into.

Précis:

Total Words: 149

The author narrates that having a good guide is important. Without one, the inexperienced and young can make mistakes. Author made many mistakes and resulting from the absence of a reliable mentor. And now seeks from to offer guidance to others to prevent them from making some mistakes.

Précis words: 49

Title:

- 1) A Good Mentorship.
- 2) The Power of Guidance.
- 3) Learning from Mistakes to Navigate Life's Challenges
- 4) Choose a wise guide.