

Economy or politics: Pakistan Condendum outline

Introduction

a) Thesis Statement:

The Condendum between economy and politics in Pakistan is a debatable and long-standing issue. That has significantly effect the development and stability of the country. It is need to maintain a balance between Economy and politics to stable the country.

b) Overview of economy and politics of Pakistan

c) Economy is a condendum of Pakistan (T) as

a) Decline in the production of agriculture product.

b) Crippling situation of manufacture products.

c) Devolution of PKR again and again

d) Some departments are burden on the country.

e) Lack of trust from trade partner.

d) politics is a conundrum of Pakistan. (anti thesis)

a) ill planned of politician is responsible for low production

b) Biased political System create problems for the economy.

c) Faulty Decision of politician cause currency devaluation

d) Involvement of private sector which was run by politician

e) politicians think about their interest not for the country.

e) Despite Dirty politics Economy is a serious conundrum for Pakistan. (Synthesis)

a) Impacts of climate change cause low production.

b) The position of international

~~Foreign or other sources~~ organization affect manufacturing sector

c) Main Decision were taken by Global power

d) Private Sector gave a positive outcome but cannot stabilize economy.

e) International agency are working to stabilize Pakistan.

Conclusion: