

Date: 1/20

2017 → Passage

Day:

Comprehension.

Q.No 1.

Our education doesn't teach us the love and give opportunity that is required to being a good person, a scientist, or an artist.

Q.No 2;

Unlike the ordinary man, an artist is a person with particular abilities of recognizing the aesthetic activities of spirit and imparting that beauty to his work. While the ordinary man does not even understand it.

Q.No 3:

By recognizing the aesthetic activity in objects as we acknowledge and value moral activity in actions, we can make our lives beautiful and charming.

Q.No 4: According to the writer, beauty is not just a source of pleasure in fact it is the part of life.

Q NOS:

Yes, art and beauty affect our practical life and morals, because the art gives man a chance to understand the relation between universe's discovery and beauty, and imparting the same beauty to his work which ultimately satisfies the desire of his own spirit.

2016 - Passage

Date: 1/120

Comprehension

Day: _____

Q NO 1:

The reason why most of fail in our self-improvement's efforts is that we are determined for our plans, but we can't make time to complete them.

Q NO 2:

Telling everyone about our aims make us more lame and stupid when we will not be able to fulfill our decisions and goals.

Q NO 3:

On the evening of New Year, the late-night party gave writer a reason for not completing his either of goals as it was the first day of New Year, and he thought he would start from the second day.

Q NO 4:

Intimidating

→

Unsettling

P peril

→

Pitfall

Dwindling

→

Diminishing

barb

→

Taunt and Jibes

repel

→

Drag